

Delaware – James Joachimowski

- i. 10-15% above average on service requests
- ii. More spraying than usual related to marsh restoration project and heavy rains in the late summer
- iii. Low numbers of viral activity
- iv. ZIKV Response
 1. Improved communications with public health
 2. Responded to travel related cases
 3. Treated surrounding areas
 4. Surveillance
 - a. 25 NJ light traps statewide
 - b. Increased albo trapping effort
- v. What's new in 2017?
 1. Tick control – maybe, based on funding
 2. Considering the use of drones – FFA involvement
 3. Increased surveillance and control of urban mosquitoes